Instructors may require that you use full-text, peer-reviewed articles from the NCLive databases.

NCLive will save you time, and find the quality resources you need. Many of these NCLive resources cannot be found through Google and other free search engines.

1. Login to MySCC
2. Select Library tab in banner.
3. Select NCLive link.
4. Under “Popular Databases,” choose Academic Search Complete. (Need password from home!)
5. Select “full-text” box, “peer-reviewed,” and enter search terms.
6. Please contact library staff for more details.

Which databases for your class / assignment?

Literature: Literary Reference Center Plus Academic Search Complete

Health: Health Source, CINAHL, Academic Search Complete

Persuasion Paper: CQ Researcher Online, Points of View, Academic Search Complete, TopicSearch

Biology, A&P: Academic Search Complete, Science Reference Center

Art: Camio

The NCLive homepage has categories for additional topics.

When in doubt, you can use the most popular database, Academic Search Complete.

PASSWORD: the 14-digit number on the back of your student picture I.D.

DISTANCE LEARNER: Check Blackboard for password. Any questions, call Library Staff.
